

Role Description

We are looking for inspirational Coaches to join our team at Horsley, Bookham and Leatherhead RDA. With a passion for volunteering with children and animals, the ideal volunteer will enjoy an opportunity to be part of a team, spend time outside and be physically active. An ability to teach and create a nurturing learning environment is essential and experience of working or riding horses is an advantage.

Training will be provided.

Purpose

To lead group individual riding sessions or pony experiences to ensure each participant is supported and enjoys their sessions to the full.

Mains Tasks and Responsibilities

- To work closely with the Team Leader and Trustees to deliver appropriate sessions to the participants, ensuring that the content is designed to meet their needs and abilities
- Develop session content that is fulfilling and challenges our more able riders
- Support the Team Leader and Trustees to ensure that volunteers receive appropriate training and completion of their green card
- Support with the schooling of equines as required
- Committed to training and development and completing the RDA Coaching Pathway

Additional Responsibilities

- Understand the importance of the RDA Health and Safety procedures
 - Be familiar with fire evacuation procedures
 - Undertake first aid training
- Be committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people

RDA encourages individuals from all sections of the community. Our volunteer network is richly diverse with many backgrounds, ages and cultures represented.

Horsley, Bookham and Leatherhead RDA is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people. All RDA volunteers are subject to a DBS check and satisfactory references.
